

GAUTENG TALENT SUMMIT

09 November 2006

A Focused and Serious Debate
Between Business, Government,
Academia and the Human Capital
Profession

STOP PRESS!

2 High Powered Events to Launch a 3-Year Cycle of Talent Management Initiatives

On the 28th September 2006, the Hon Mbhazima Shilowa presented his vision and strategic priority for the Gauteng City-Region at an Executive Breakfast Briefing at Wits Business School.

The Premier has made it a strategic imperative for Gauteng to create, develop and retain its Top Talent to reposition itself as a knowledge-based economy capable of competing with the best globally.

This marks the 'call to action' by business, government, academia and the Human Capital profession to create a public-private partnering to transform the Gauteng economy into a globally competitive city-region.

On the 09th November 2006, Deloitte, Wits Business School, The Human Capital Institute (HCI Africa) and The University of Johannesburg will host a one day Talent Summit where they invite you to participate in one of the most challenging forums to address Top Talent issues and opportunities in a meaningful and provocative way.
